Shoah ↗

Wikipedia • The Holocaust, known in Hebrew as the Shoah, was the genocide of European Jews during World War II. From 1941 to 1945, Nazi Germany and its collaborators systematically murdered some six million Jews across German-occupied Europe, around two-thirds of Europe's Jewish population.

Looking at World War II from the perspective of economics, it is quite clear that the Third Reich was a giant with feet of clay.
A series of unprecedented revelations explains how Germany has been able to finance its huge war expenses.
The war might have ended in 1943, had Switzerland not recycled the gold looted by the Nazis throughout Europe and France.

It wasn't just Switzerland: before the War, British, French and American capital funded Hitler for the exclusive objective of defeating Bolshevism in Europe and destroying the U.S.S.R.

Although not connected to Banking the Ford Motor Company had a factory in Europe manufacturing vehicles for the German War Machine. This factory was destroyed by Allied Bombers. Post WW2 the Ford Motor company recieved financial compensation from the USA for the destruction of the said factory.

Swiss bankers are like the C.I.A."In the CIA, we didn't give a hoot about democracy... If a country didn't cooperate with us, democracy didn't mean a thing, and I don't think it means a thing today."
